

Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship

In the Hawai'i Conference, the Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship Fund plays a key role in supporting seminary students. Each year, prospective and current pastors are eligible to receive a Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship, named for the young Hawaiian credited with inspiring the Sandwich Islands mission that brought Christianity to Hawai'i in the 1800s.

Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia, Hawai'i's first known Christian and scholar and the inspiration for the Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship.

Rev. Dr. Nani Hill, current Kahu of Hokuhoa UCC on Hawai'i Island, is a notable recipient of the scholarship. Nani received the Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship while pursuing her Doctor of Ministry degree at Chicago Theological Seminary. "I would not have been able to complete my doctorate without scholarships," shares Nani. "This particular scholarship was invaluable and allowed me to focus on my thesis about the 'aloha spirit' theology, which continues to be the main focus of my ministry."

To make a donation to the Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship Fund
go to www.hcucc.org and click "Donate."

Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship

In the Hawai'i Conference, the Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship Fund plays a key role in supporting seminary students. Each year, prospective and current pastors are eligible to receive a Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship, named for the young Hawaiian credited with inspiring the Sandwich Islands mission that brought Christianity to Hawai'i in the 1800s.

Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia, Hawai'i's first known Christian and scholar and the inspiration for the Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship.

Rev. Dr. Nani Hill, current Kahu of Hokuhoa UCC on Hawai'i Island, is a notable recipient of the scholarship. Nani received the Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship while pursuing her Doctor of Ministry degree at Chicago Theological Seminary. "I would not have been able to complete my doctorate without scholarships," shares Nani. "This particular scholarship was invaluable and allowed me to focus on my thesis about the 'aloha spirit' theology, which continues to be the main focus of my ministry."

To make a donation to the Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia Scholarship Fund
go to www.hcucc.org and click "Donate."

