Topic Context: Pastoral Care Training - “How to Design Healing-Centered Ministries”

Rev. Jermine D. Alberty is a nationally recognized Mental Health First Aid National Trainer, author, and speaker with over 25 years of experience helping faith leaders integrate trauma-informed care into their ministries. He is the founder of the SALT Initiative, which equips communities to heal through Service, Affirmation, Love, and Transformation.

Training Objectives:

- Explore the Theological Basis of Trauma-Informed Care in Ministry
- Understand trauma’s impact on the mind, body, spirit, and relationships
- Apply the SALT model to Pastoral Care and Community Ministry
- Recognize signs of compassion fatigue and promote self-care
- Empower leaders to transform their ministry spaces into places of healing and safety

See enclosed flyer for more details on the Pastoral Care Training. For additional information contact Kahu Michael Warren at (808) 896-5797.

Registration must be received by 4:00 P.M. on Friday, October 3, 2025
