ALOHA LETTER

I ko mākou pule aloha, welina ma ka inoa o ka Makua, ke Keiki a me ka 'Uhane Hemolele. To our beloved churches, greetings in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

As we count the days to our gathering in Kāneʻohe, on behalf the membership of Kāneʻohe Congregational Church, we bring greetings of “aloha” and welcome.

Founded on November 15, 1834, our church is the oldest Protestant church on the windward side of Oʻahu, established by missionary, Rev. Benjamin Wyman Parker, a member of the 6th company of missionaries that arrived in Hawaiʻi in 1833 from New England. After the division of lands known as the Great Māhele in 1848, the church was granted seven acres in 1849 by King Kamehameha III. The first building was a hale pili or grass hut, followed by other wooden structures located at the fork in the roads of Waikalua and Waikapoki in Kāneʻohe. Like the historical churches of the Association of Hawaiian Evangelical Churches, the longevity of all of our hale pule is due to the grace of Almighty God, the power of the gospel of salvation and the steadfast faith and unity of its membership.

With great anticipation of your arrival, there is so much to thank God for, as we look forward to the privilege of being in Ke Akua's presence with all of you and drawing closer to Him. The Bible reminds us that we are the Temple of the living God and through the 'Uhane Hemolele (Holy Spirit), He says, “I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their God and they shall be my people” (2 Cor. 6:16). There will be much joy, hope, grace, power and love as together we embrace the favor God brings.

Welcome to Kāneʻohe!

Na ke Akua ia e ho'opa'a iā 'oe ma kona lima,
