

“A Just World for All” t-shirt 23 language edition

LANGUAGE GUIDE (rev. 6/14/19)
[translators names in brackets]

Thank you for your support of our “A Just World for All” multilingual project. All 23 languages represented on your t-shirt are languages that are spoken or used by United Church of Christ churches, members, or pastors. For this edition we focused on languages used in our PAAM Churches. The original translations were solicited from church members and pastors who are either native speakers or teachers of those languages; no professional translation services were employed. However, in some cases, we consulted other native speakers outside the UCC to verify accuracy and readability.

We hope that you will wear your shirt proudly to let everyone know that “A Just World for All” speaks more than one language.
